PETERSBURG, VA., July 7 .- (Special.)

Friends of Mr. Richard Tatum, aged about 25 years, whose home is on Old street, in this city, are apprehensive as his friends before the train reached Sutfolk, and they have never seen or heard of him since. It is reported here that an unknown man was killed on the road somewhere in the vicinity of Waverly on that Monday night, and the friends of young Tatum fear that he was the man who met with the accident. It is sup-reported the facts as to his disappearance. The matter will be investigated.

A slight fire occurred this morning in the apartments of Mrs. Edwards, over the store of the Petersburg Shoe Company, on Sycamore street. A quantity of burning cinders had been emptied into a wooden bucket. They burned through the bucket and set fire to the floor. The damage was slight.

In setting its poles along a portion of Old street, the Petersburg Electric Railway Company will have to do a considerable amount of blasting. There is a solid bed of granite underlying that portion of the city years have the surface and it Hanging.

LEXINGTON, VA., July 7 .- (Special.)-

The jury in the County Court to-day in the case of Henry Taylor (white), for eriminal assault on 9-year-old Viloa M.

Williams, rendered a verdict of twenty years in the penitentiary, after being out a half hour. Taylor was indicted by a special grand jury Tuesday and brought here Wednesday from Lynchburg, where he had been taken for safe- keeping. His trial occupied the entire day and attracted a large number of spectators. The verdice meets with the approval of some. With others, the prevailing sentiment was for hanging, and the prisoner will be removed at once for safety. The prisoner's plea at once for safety. The prisoner's plea was intoxication, and that he knew nothing about the deed. He was much relieved when the verdict was announced. Several of the jury, on the first ballot, were for henging. The foreman of the jury was W. B. F. Leech, and the jury was from the western part of Rockbridge county.

This young lady woke about 1:39 at hearing such noise from the wall as one would make by feeling his way in the dark. She became apprehensive and sprang up, rushing towards the door. Almost instantly she ran against a man. She then screamed as loud as she could, and was by this time greatly frightened. The unknown fellow caught her and attempted to choke her to keep the family from being roused by her cries. In the struggle her clothing was badly torn. She made her escape, however, and ran screaming to her mother's room. Her mother and brother. Mr. J. Caristian Tudor, meanwhile, had been waked by the noise, and all was excitement in the house. I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's irugstore and they recommended Chamberlaji's Colic, Cholera and Distribute Remedy. It worked like magic, and one dose fixed rue all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Liveryman, Eurgettstown, Washington county, Pa. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Edward S. Price to-day had his secon trial for the murder of Alice Harris, which occurred in April. At the first trial he was given five years. The jury has the case to-night. A sensational shooting affray, which caused considerable excitement, but in which no one was injured, occurred in Hampton last night. R. C. Lee, a well-known merchant, and David Pratt, a negro, were the principals. Lee and Pratt own adjoining lots. For some time there has been a question about the dividing
